The University of Illinois would like Illinois football to be an enjoyable experience for all who attend our events. We take great pride in the conduct of our student-athletes and our fans. Coaches instruct their athletes to treat opponents and officials with respect. We also request that you, the fans, display a high degree of respect and sportsmanship at all times. If a patron displays conduct which endangers or disrupts players, coaches, officials, or other patrons, please report offenders to the nearest event management staff member or a police officer. The University of Illinois reserves the right to remove disruptive individuals from Memorial Stadium. No refunds will be granted in such cases. Thank you for your support of Illinois Athletics. We hope you enjoy your visit to the University of Illinois campus and your experience at Memorial Stadium.

Dear Football Fans:

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics would like to welcome you to Memorial Stadium, home of Fighting Illini Football at the University of Illinois. College football is an exciting experience and there is no better place to view a college football game than Memorial Stadium.

This football season will be one of transition for Memorial Stadium and you as patrons. Due to the renovation of the Great West Hall and the building of the 77 Club, Colonnades Club, and the new press box, the stadium will be under construction throughout the 2007 season. To insure a successful season we would like to request that all patrons be patient while we make Memorial Stadium an even better place to watch the Fighting Illini. To insure that your visit to Memorial Stadium is an enjoyable one, we have created this guide to provide you with information regarding the construction and the impact on your game day experience.
